

We want to keep the current Wisconsin "no call list" regulations. We do not want them weakened which would allow invasion of our privacy. We want the right to decide when and who we will contact regarding any type of commerce and not the other way around.